Hugo Cottier
Associate Director

Hugo graduated from the University of Technology, Sydney in 2005 with First Class Honours and joined lahznimmo architects in June 2006. Prior to this Hugo worked for four years at Allen, Jack and Cottier Architects on a variety of large scale housing developments.

Since joining lahznimmo architects Hugo has become an integral part of the lahznimmo team and was appointed an Associate Director of the practice in 2011. Hugo has been the Project Architect for several high profile projects including, the Armory Wharf Cafe, the Prince Henry Community Centre and Helensvale Library and CCYC for the Gold Coast City Council. Hugo is strong in all aspects of architectural practice being able to take projects from inception through to completion. His work is thoughtful, methodical and well resolved.

Along with his architectural experience Hugo also has an education in furniture design/making, having studied at the Australia National University, Canberra, as well as operating a furniture and cabinetry partnership in Sydney. This experience has given him a keen interest in detailing and design resolution which he brings to each project.
